

O Lord, We Seek

VALET WILL ICH DIR GEBEN

Elana Keppel Levy, 2019

Melchior Teschner, 1613

1. O Lord, we seek the still - ness that comes from trust in you.
2. O Lord, we seek the wis - dom found in your ho - ly word.
3. O Lord, we seek the full - ness of won - ders from your hand:
4. O Lord, we seek dis - cern - ment to fol - low you a - right.
5. O Lord, we seek the splen - dor of your warm light of grace.

When e - vil howls a - round us, we long for hope a - new.
We find a peace - ful king - dom, so peace - ful it's ab - surd!
The des - ert flow - ers bloom - ing, the weak who now can stand.
We look for signs to guide us, but strug - gle for in - sight.
The dark - ness will not tri - umph, to us you turn your face.

Let's jour - ney to that moun - tain where na - tions meet
 The wolf and lamb to - geth - er, the cow and bear
 Your peo - ple scarred by ex - ile, you set them home -
 We see that God is with us in our Im - man -
 We bless the ho - ly chi - ld, our coun - selor, Prince to tools that make a - mends.

 shines through our bro - ken days.
 Let joy and praise re - sound!
 and so all shall be well.
 let right - eous - ness in - crease.
